

Potential Arts Advocacy through Action Projects in Your Community

Search for and provide more performing opportunities for students

Establish a quality recital venue space

Develop or participate in a local music festival

Form a community orchestra

Make available more competitions for students

Place a grand piano in a public space

Offer educational classes for adult learners

Support music education programs in the schools

Create professional development classes for music educators